RICHARD IN YOUR MIND

THE VOLCANO IS ERUPTING

In which we mean - Richard In Your Mind are officially launching their new album MY VOLCANO this July!

The kaleidoscopic and euphoric MY VOLCANO is set for release June 26th.

My Volcano sees the band expanding their musical vision ever outwards, traversing through fields of lush psychedelia, Odelay-esque party jams, lo-fi antifolk and tribal freak-outs.

With the fellows earning more tour stripes with the Cloud Control tour around Australia now, these launch shows are set to be a night of wonder and sonic eruptions!

We are thrilled to announce these album launch dates and hope you make it along to these nights of wonderment!

More Richard In Your Mind offerings to come!
