

SEEKAE THE SOUND OF TREES FALLING ON PEOPLE PLUS BONUS REMIX EP

RICE IS NICE are very happy to bring you the re-release of Seekae's "The Sound of Tree's Falling on People" with bonus remix ep.

Since independently releasing their debut album "The Sound of Trees Falling on People" in December 08' Seekae instantly impressed their audiences selling out of their initial pressing.

This compelling release resulted in a whirl of much deserved all star review and radio love which included, FBI album of the week and being describe in a 4 star Rolling Stone review as "an album that's as ambient and mesmerizing as an iced-over forest."

The band went on to create this remix ep mid 09, covering bands such as Ghoul, Megastick Fanfare and Bearhug. The group who are renowned for an vibrant live show incorporating drum machines, synthesizers, samplers, melodicas, guitars, drums, glockenspiels and even spoons sold out the venue for the launch by 9pm.

Seekae then went on to complete a string of dates up and down the coast with electronic/post-rock heavyweights Decoder Ring and will soon be dazzling crowds at Sydney's Parklife festival before hitting the road in November with The Midnight Juggernauts.

The band's style shifts between ambient, glitch and hip hop, and surfs between the varying electronic sounds of Xela, Boards of Canada and Telefon Tel Aviv via the pop affability of Hot Chip. Somewhat appropriately, Seekae have dubbed their sound "ghetto ambient".

The double disk release is out on October 17th 2009.
